

Shepshed Singers is a group of mixed voices from Shepshed, Loughborough and the surrounding area of Charnwood and beyond. The choir was founded over 25 years ago and for much of that time has been under the musical direction of Andrew Goff.

The Singers' repertoire includes a variety of sacred and secular pieces and the choir aims to present a major classical concert each year.

The choir's regular overseas tours have included visits to Bruges, Barcelona, Prague, Paris and Amsterdam.

For further information about the choir, including how to book for an event or become a member or patron, please visit their website at: www.shepshedsingers.org.uk

Andrew Goff is a freelance musician and teacher, who has worked with a number of choral groups in Leicestershire. He is closely involved with Sing for Pleasure, the national choral organisation, as a tutor of conductor training.

Andrew has a growing reputation as a composer and arranger of choral music. He works with several musical theatre groups and is a member of Sine Nomine, the international touring choir.

Andrew is interested in introducing singers and audiences to less familiar and neglected choral repertoire.

Shepshed Singers is a registered charity
